CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY

1. (Confidential - DFM) Called J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, to inform him that Anatole Davydov, the Soviet journalist who defected in Tokyo last weekend, was being handled by the Department of State as an emigre, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I told him requests to interview Davydov should be sent to the State Department or the Tolstoy Foundation in New York, which was handling his resettlement. This information had been given me by [REDACTED]

2. [REDACTED] C/SE Division, called concerning the interest of the Subcommittee on Internal Security, Senate Judiciary Committee, on [REDACTED] and it was agreed that we would make contact with J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Subcommittee, to see what arrangements could be made without disturbing [REDACTED] current activities, [REDACTED] will follow up.

3. [REDACTED] OCI, and I met with Elmer Henderson, Staff Director, Subcommittee on Legislation and National Security, House Government Operations Committee, to review the upcoming briefing of the Subcommittee and we learned there would be a transcript and a reporter named John Gianelli (phonetic) would be taking the transcript. Gianelli had been used previously by the Subcommittee for classified executive sessions.

Concerning my suggestion that [REDACTED] NIO/SEA, kick off the session and then depart following his briefing, Henderson said that Chairman Jack Brooks (D., Tex.) would prefer to have [REDACTED] provide his briefing at the end of the session. [REDACTED] OS, was provided the information on Gianelli so that we could set up our standard procedures for controlling the transcript.

4. (Confidential - PLC) Delivered to Judy Spahr, on the staff of the Senate Government Operations Subcommittee on Investigations, the first and major section of President Thieu's resignation speech in translated form. The second portion which was not ready at the time for delivery will be delivered tomorrow morning via courier.
